

SENSORY fables™

Sensory Fables is a luxury home-fragrance house that crafts refined scent experiences and end-to-end product solutions. From the earliest spark of concept to the final details of design and presentation, we shape every element with intention, artistry, and an uncompromising commitment to quality. With low MOQs and the ability to create collections tailored to your budget, we make high-end fragrance development accessible without any compromises.

This catalog offers a glimpse into our portfolio in 2025—an ensemble of candles, diffusers, and curated fragrance creations developed for clients who value elegance, craft, and seamless execution.
